

Journeys of Discovery: Birmingham showcases world's largest motorcycle collection

- Barber Motorsports Museum in Birmingham, Alabama showcases an array of motorcycles from ancient to cutting-edge experimental models.

THOMAS WILMER

Listen

Listening...

19:00

Jeff Ray, executive director at Birmingham Alabama's Barber Vintage Motorsports Museum talks about the $100,000,000 investment in the State of Alabama's largest philanthropic enterprise.

George Barber decided to dedicate a portion of his dairy industry fortune showcasing the world's largest collection of motorcycles (1,600), including super rare steam-powered bicycles dating from the 1860s. Barber is also home to The Porsche Track Experience; the world's largest factory sponsored driving school.

Barber hosts the annual IndyCar Honda Grand Prix of Alabama and sponsors the Annual Barber Vintage Festival, attracting more than 80,000 participants.

You are invited to subscribe to the Lowell Thomas Award-winning travel show podcast, Journeys of Discovery with Tom Wilmer, featured on the NPR Podcast Directory, Apple Podcast, iHeartRadio, the NPR One App & Stitcher.com. Twitter: TomCWilmer. Instagram: Thomas.Wilmer. Member of the National Press Club in Washington D.C. Underwriting support provided by the Society of St. Vincent De Paul.

TAGS:

BIRMINGHAM ALABAMA

JEFF RAY

BARBER VINTAGE MOTORSPORTS MUSEUM

PORSCHE TRACK EXPERIENCE

INDYCAR HONDA GRAND PRIX OF ALABAMA

MOTORCYCLES

GEORGE BARBER

BIRMINGHAM BUSINESS ALLIANCE